"Most of us have enough areas of our lives where we have to meet others' expectations. Let your running be about your own hopes and dreams"

~ Meb Keflezighi

We hope that participating in our Houston Marathon Weekend of Events allows you to chase your hopes and dreams! It is fulfilling for us here at the Houston Marathon Committee to see the growth of the Houston Legacy Program. Without further ado we are happy to announce our newest 2023 Legacy inductees, stats and race recap below!

2024 LEGACY REGISTRATION REMINDERS

Legacy registration is currently open! As our Legacy Members you have access to register now before general registration opens to the public on June 7th!

- As a Legacy runner, you will have until Nov. 1 2023, to register for the Chevron Houston Marathon or the Aramco Houston Half Marathon and keep your legacy status.

Registration is still open, you may register for 2021 at the regular participant rate, or through the Chevron Houston Marathon Run for a Reason Charity Program provided entries are still available

WHAT IS YOUR LEGACY?

We know every one of our Legacy runners has a unique story on how each of you came to join the Houston Legacy Program. We would love to hear from you and perhaps your story will be featured in a future social or newsletter!

Please email Dominique dhernandez@houstonmarathon.com to share your Legacy story!

2023 RACE RECAP

HOUSTON (January 13 - 15, 2023) - Thrilling sprint finishes for the men, dominant performances by the women and a new American half marathon record highlighted the Aramco Houston Half Marathon and Chevron Houston Marathon. The women's half marathon was a race for records. Emily Sisson broke her own American record by 19 seconds crossing the finish line in 1:06:52. Hitomi Niiya aims to break the Japanese national record and course record but misses it by 12 seconds.
